Overview:

Entering the villa immers you in a unique, picturesque green design before you enter your home. Acting as a green fold of land, a staircase leads to a balcony to the sea.
The combination of large panoramic windows and sliding doors harmonises the interior with the exterior. The large living room combines the kitchen and dining room, creating a versatile and open space for your home.
The furnishing of the rooms and windows allows light to illuminate your home with a note of Mediterranean paradise.
The master bedroom invites you to relax in the spa with maximum comfort and a live view of the Mediterranean nature around you.
A large terrace offers one of the most unusual views in Marbella, combining incredible nature and sea scenery. The recreation area and Jacuzzi face the sea and the mountains in the company of a solarium and barbecue grill to enjoy the best sunsets.
This special villa contains a wide range of amenities for your convenience and comfort: open spaces and free layout, bright open bedrooms, fully equipped basement with gym, wine cellar, lounge and home cinema; and a lift that goes up to all levels. A lounge with a suspended fireplace leads to the rooftop terrace, garden and lovely pool which can be admired from the roof terrace and ground floor and the spa.
