Overview: Stunning modern contemporary villa situated in the hills up the Ronda road with breath taking views down the valley and to the mediterranean sea. Built by a famous architect, with top class Italian furniture and complete domotic system. Layout: the house is built on split levels, coming down from the entrance you find the large living area with dining table, cinema room, and kitchen with breakfast/lunch area, behind is the laundry room, from the kitchen and living area you have access out to the terrace, garden and infinity pool. To the right of the house, there is a "green area" which is used as a very small golf practice. Down further steps (from the living) on one side you find the wine cellar, TV, gym and sauna. Down to the other side you have access to the storage and garage area enough for 6+ cars. From the entrance upstairs, double bedroom with ensuite shower - all facing west/north, up a little more is the master bedroom with ensuite shower and bath facing
