Overview: Spectacular semi-detached house just behind the south park (Mangas Verdes) If you are looking for a spacious and bright house in a completely quiet area, away from noise and the daily hustle and bustle of the main streets, but with easy access to the highway in all directions, downtown, shops ... this is your home. This chalet is distributed over 3 floors as follows: -Low level: On this floor we find the living room, with functional fireplace and air conditioning, dining room, fully equipped kitchen, bathroom with shower and backyard. The hole under the staircase is perfectly conditioned to be used as a storage room. -First floor: Here we find the rooms, three of them doubles, and one single, plus a second bathroom equipped with a bathtub. -Second floor: Going up the stairs to the top floor we see a space that could well be used as a storage room, room or for the use that best suits us, since it is of considerable size. From here we access a terrace, approximately 50 meters long, with unobstructed views of the city, where we can enjoy the Malaga sun in all its splendor. A unique opportunity that you cannot miss. Call us without obligation and arrange your visit before they get ahead of you!
