Overview: This plot in the new golden mile with fantastic sea views in the very fashionable area of the Resina golf has 1049m² and offering a project of a villa with 266m², elegant and modern with 6 bedrooms as a possibility to buy with the plot or creating the own individual project whatever suits best. The area is only a few minutes drive to the beach of Velerin, one of the nicest beaches around and also to Marbella you would only drive 30 minutes. You will be in 20 minutes in Puerto Banus and in 10 minutes drive in Estepona. The drive down to the Selwo roundabout is only 5 minutes. The totally modern project of a 6 bedrooms villa would cost around 600,000€- 800,000€ including creating the level on the hill area for the foundation of the villa. Resina golf has a very charming golf club and they are planning their own Spa and also a small shop right there at a few minutes from the plot. This investment is a very good priced offer for that high standard project and area, also if you just buy the plot without project it is a good investment with beautiful views.
