Overview: Nestled in the heart of the enchanting and picturesque village of Mijas, this charming and spacious villa is an absolute must-see. Boasting a gorgeous private swimming pool and multiple sunny terraces surrounding the property, this villa is both quietly set and conveniently close to everything. Originally two separate townhouses that have been seamlessly converted into one spacious and splendid residence, this property offers open views to the village, mountains, and sea beyond. The property provides ample parking with both a car port and lock-up garage. As you enter the villa, you are welcomed by two entrance halls leading to two spacious reception rooms and a brand new modern kitchen. The ground floor features two double bedrooms, both with en suites, while the upper level boasts two spacious double bedrooms, also with en suites. One of the bedrooms on the upper level features an integrated office space, while the other is triple aspect. Both have large terraces leading from them, providing stunning views of the surrounding area. Outside, the good-sized pool with Andalusian water feature provides total privacy, and there are several open and closed terraces together with two storerooms. Additional features of this exceptional property include part gas heating and air conditioning. With its ideal location, stunning views, and exceptional features, this villa truly must be seen to be appreciated. Don't miss your chance to make this incredible property your new home.
