Overview: Spacious villa in La Alqueria with beautiful sea, Gibraltar and mountain views. The views are in all directions from the house or from various terraces where you can enjoy sunsets with a cool drink. German built to a high standard with large rooms and high ceilings so it is bright and airy. Two floors plus a roof terrace with stunning views. Two impressive living rooms. One leading to the large terrace the other leading out to the heated pool. There is a guest apartment as well. Underfloor heating and the very private heated pool are powered from solar panels and a heat pump. A/c hot and cold. Lots of storage space and a good sized garage.
