Overview: These two stunning side-by-side villas are offered for sale both together and separately. Sharing an unusual 'hotel-style' design, both properties share a huge private garden, each with its own independent swimming pool and first class amenities. Their south orientation provides long hours of sunshine throughout the day, as well as incredible views of the Mediterranean Sea, which acts as a prime witness to such architectural beauty. The famous La Concha mountain surrounds Villas La Rotonda from the north, providing the famous Marbella Hill Club resort with the privacy and tranquillity that its future owners deserve. Their privileged location makes them within a short distance of the bustling centre of Marbella and the renowned Puerto Banús.
