Overview: Beautifully reformed townhouse in the centre of Guaro. . Open plan living . Short walk to TAPAS bars . Spanish village . Immerse yourself in spanish culture This authentic townhouse is spread over 3-levels and has recently been completely reformed to modern standards. All the installations are brand new, from the electrics and floors to the kitchen and bathrooms. Authentic elements like the thick plastered walls and the wooden entrance door as well as steel ornaments are preserved. The house is finished to high standards and ready to move in! Entering through the front door at street level, you arrive in the open-plan living room with modern, fully fitted, kitchen. From the kitchen you have access to a cosy patio, which leads to a separate outside building with bedroom and ensuite bathroom. Ideal for guests! Via steps you go down to a good size storage room, which could also be converted into something else. On second floor of the house, there is a family bathroom with sink, toilet, bath and bidet. Also the master bedroom with built in wardrobe and window with views to the street is located on the second floor. The third floor leads you straight into a third bedroom with another large built in wardrobe and window to the front of the house. A door brings you to a lovely roof terrace with plenty of space to have an outside dining/lounge area. From the roof terrace you overlook the village and distant mountains of the Sierra de las Nieves. Come and visit this unique property and explore the beautiful surroundings!
