Overview: Triplex apartment with three (or four) bedrooms and great views. This property is located close to El Paraiso Hotel and El Paraiso Golf. It enjoys spectacular views over the community gardens, local area and Mediterranean beyond. You can park directly outside the front door in a private carport area. As you enter the property, you walk up the stairs to access the main living area - located on an upper level to make the most of those amazing views. On this middle level you will find a bright living room, separate dining room (which could be bedroom four if required), kitchen and an ensuite bedroom. From the living and dining rooms you can access one of two spacious terraces with views across the pool, gardens and to the sea. The floor below, where you enter the property also has a large terrace facing south west as well and accessed from the ensuite bedroom on this level. This is the largest of the bedrooms and is commonly used as the master bedroom. On the upper level there is a useful office space, shower room and third bedroom or extra sitting room / TV room with access to a southeast facing terrace which also enjoys views of the sea and local area. Located in a peaceful area yet just a couple of minutes drive from amenities and with easy car parking, this complex is popular with winter sun seekers, golfers and full time residents alike.
