Overview: Now reduced in price for a quick sale!! Beautiful villa within closed gated complex. This stunning and perfectly well-maintained villa is a great property just minutes away from the busy and noisy coast line but yet, with breathtaking sea and mountain views. Ample bedrooms with lots of natural light. Perfectly located in the complex since this location allows it to have access through the neighboring complex adding more parking spaces and extra access. The very well-maintained complex offers five pool and large garden areas. The South orientation allows for natural light to enter in all the rooms and levels of the house. This is the only house of its type with a full laundry-ironing room in the roof level. Own a villa without the nuisance of a villa as it is part of a community. This feature allows for large savings in maintenance, security and adds tranquility to your life. Own a villa with the costs of an apartment. A must view.
