Overview:This exceptional beachside property really has the feel good factor. The apartment feels very bright and has been refurbished tastefully to a high standard with a great kitchen containing bosch appliances and also a very important wine cooler. From its elevated, penthouse like position the larger than average terrace offers amazing beach views, port views and pool views with nice views over the protected dunes and mediterranean pines along the coast. We can even see the waves breaking. The property also has a fully lockable garage within the underground private parking area making it especially attractive to owners of nicer cars or water sports equipment. We strongly recommend a viewing. Keys in the office viewings available 7 days a week.
