Overview: This finca is a unique jewel for its exclusive qualities in the region. Its strategic location, with vast land, lakes, streams and buildings, guarantee to make your projects a reality. Would you like to produce your own wines and/or oils, produce mangoes, avocados or even take the best care of your horses? Are you looking for a space of freedom and privacy exclusive to you and your family, or to be able to accommodate your guests? Then this well connected finca with easy access, located a few minutes drive from the Fuengirola Center and Mijas, is the perfect place for you. The farm covers an area of 2 HA surrounded by the hills, and bordered by streams and lakes that supply production autonomously. The main house built in the Andalusian rural style and separate rooms consists of three floors and two terraces. It has an open kitchen with adjoining dining area, wine cellar and guest toilet in the left wing of the building, as well as a spacious living room with open fireplace in the right wing. Access to the four bedrooms is through the gallery in the living room. It has a complete independent room for the service staff that has its own access at the back of the house and is equipped with 3 bedrooms, living room, kitchen, bathroom and terrace. Currently, the estate has around 3,500 olive trees, 4,000 avocado trees, 2,000 mango trees, as well as a well-built chicken coop, a secluded beekeeper and a farm orchard. The irrigation of trees and plants is done through an irrigation system that is fed by the lakes themselves. The farm also includes two department stores, one of them a hall for the machines necessary for the management of the farm and another large warehouse that also has an integrated kitchen and toilet, which is used for parties and events; there are also covered parking spaces for several cars.
