Overview: This traditional rustic farmhouse is located in a rural area approximately a 10-minute drive from the lively town of Coín. The fenced plot is over 7,000m² and is mostly flat, so it would be an ideal place to keep horses. The house is divided into 4 separate apartments: The owner's accommodation has a kitchen, living room, dining room, large shower room and a bedroom on the first floor. The 3 remaining apartments all have 1 bedroom, kitchenette, and a bathroom. By the pool there is a fabulous covered living area with living room, dining and kitchen areas. There are 2 large storage rooms and a utility room. Water is from a private well, electricity is connected, mobile phone signal is good and wireless internet connection is available. The property needs some modernisation but could be a perfect spot for a rural tourism business.
