Overview: BEAUTIFUL HOUSE IN GREAT LOCATION IN FUENGIROLA This beautiful house is located just a few minutes walk from the centre of Fuengirola. As you enter the house, you find the spacious living/dining room, guest toilet and an open kitchen that leads to the sunny patio. On the second floor are all bedrooms with bathrooms (main bedroom with bathroom ensuite), coming up the stairs you find the spacious solarium with nice views to the street and mountains. Fuengirola is now a large working town with over 7kms of superb beaches with an extensive promenade stretching from the Solhail Castle in the west through to Torreblanca in the East. Along the promenade there is a wide choice of restaurants bars and hotels to suit all tastes. The town itself has every facility that you could want with a variety of shopping including boutiques and high street names interspersed with tapas bars and restaurants. The main square, the Plaza de La Constitución is a great starting point for exploring this fascinating town. On the outskirts of Fuengirola the New Myramar shopping centre offers good indoor shopping facilities together with a commercial park and Cinema complex etc. In front of the shopping centre there is one of the largest skateboard parks in Spain.
