Overview: The house is distributed on one floor, and each of its rooms is very spacious. It consists of a living room, separate kitchen with dining room, 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, utility room, large private garage with 75m² and storage/storage space. It has a wood-burning fireplace for the winter months, climatic windows and air conditioning for the hot summer in Malaga. At the entrance of the house we have a porch-terrace with incredible views, from where we go down some stairs to access the outside: a large garden with plants, a private pool and surrounded by a beautiful and green grass to enjoy nature and views to the city and the mountains. The property has been built on an elevated plot with about 880 m² and provides us with tranquility and privacy. In compliance with the Decree of the Junta de Andalucía 2182005 of October 11 | the client is informed that the notary expenses | registration | ITP | real estate brokerage and other expenses inherent to the purchase | are not included in the price. 3% (plus VAT) agency fees not included in the sale price.
