Vue d'ensemble:Large traditional Spanish townhouse in the centre of town with a private roof terrace and patio. With having 4 bedrooms, one bathroom and being built over two storeys, the house offers various living options. This would be perfect as a family home or to rent out as a source of income, seeing as it is in a great location for accessing the famous local attractions of the Caminito del Rey and the beautiful El Chorro Lakes. Water and electricity are currently not connected. House needs reforming/modernising. Álora, like many rural villages in Andalusia, has a lot of history. According to the Town Council website, it is halfway between the sea and the interior of Málaga province, at the foot of Mount Hacho and overlooking the Vega del Río Guadalhorce.
