Vue d'ensemble: This beautiful off-plan villa is located in Los Flamingos, being one of the most fascinating communities on the Costa del Sol. Los Flamingos has nine beautiful complexes set within a quiet valley, three golf courses overlooking the sea, and is only minutes from the beach and Marbella. The villa will become a modern piece of art with an open pool concept and modern design, high-quality finishes, and stunning views of the coastline. The architecture and design fuse the interior with the exterior through large windows that flood each room with natural light and provide breathtaking views. A central courtyard acts as a green midpoint of the interiors, distributing light and functions similar to a lung, resulting in a fresh and flowing atmosphere. It's a true one-of-a-kind property thanks to its location, design, material quality, brightness and views.
