Vue d'ensemble:Uninterrupted views of the sea and coastline from this gracious and spacious Townhouse on the coast between Benalmadena and Fuengirola. The property is South facing and enjoys plenty of sun. The urbanization has a beautiful private garden with swimming pool which is in immaculate condition. The house itself cannot be faulted having remained in the hands of the current owners since delivery. It's rare to find such a great view in a location that is convenient for transport links and close to towns. All of the leisure, schooling and business opportunities of the Costa del Sol are close at hand. A great family house or second home with enormous potential as a holiday rental if required.
